REMEMBER ME BY HARRY CLIFTON KIEWER.

Remember me! 'tis all I ask. I would not wish for more, Than to be cherished by a heart So tender and so pure. I would not ask thee for thy love. Nor blame thee for thy hate;

I'll calmly bear the ills of life.

And meet the shaft o ffate. But oh! if sorrow e'er should come, And blight thy gay young heart; I then would have thee think of me,

That I may share a part. I'm happy when I see thee smile. I'm sad to see thee grieve; And I would bear thy every pain, Thy sadness to relieve.

And Oh! when friends you value most, Shall meet around thy hearth: And thy more sober thoughts are lost In laughter loving mirth: I then would have thee think of me. That I may share a part: And find a home within thy breast, A home for my young heart.

THE 'NATIONAL INTELLIGENCER ON THE PRESIDENTIAL CANDI-DATES

Our respected cotemporary, the National opened, and one livid flash of lightning Intelligencer, is very much perplexed by the complications of the canvass. After heavens—there was a terrific crash—and a long pause and much reflection, it has at then the rain desce ded furiously and in last essayed to "define its position." The Intelligencer has ever been conducted with discretion, decorum and ability, and, consequently, possesses great authority with agencies, and, so far as we can learn them, the objects of that 'Order,' which, besides, When you saved the young lady, Senora was not the more commended to our regard Romiro, from the sharks? -oh, yes, sir; by the part it played in breaking down the

KNOW-NOTHING DISHONESTY.

Lying; and deception seem to be the ock in trade of many Know Nothing po ticians. There is no end to their meanness, and no depth of infamy to which they will not stoop in order to compass their unholy designs. The "ten cent" lie was all the vogue until large rewards were offered for the speech which these K. N. libellers said Mr. Buchanan had delivered; and well knowing they could not produce the document, they wisely concluded that it would not go down the popular throat, and so dropped it. So of many others of the same sort. The last fraud attempted is to garble a speech of Mr. Buchanantear a sentence from its context, and thus pervert its plain and obvious meaning. For example, they detach the following serap from its proper connexion, and raise their hands in well-affected horror at Buchanan's abolition proclimities :

"Permit me, Mr. Chairman, for a moment, to speak upon a subject to which I have never before adverted upon this floor; and to which I trust I shall never again have occasion to advert. I mean the subpolitical and a great moral evil. I thank God my lot has been east in a State where it does not exist. * * entailed upon us by that nation which now makes a subject of reproach to our institutions.

Now let the reader put this garbled extract in its true connexion-read the whol paragraph—and determine whether a mos atrocious and diabolical fraud has not been attempted by these K. N. libellers:

"Permit me, Mr. Chairman, for a mo ment, to speak upon a subject to which I and to which I trust I shall never again have occasion to advert. I mean the subject of slavery. A Thought worth Thinking of.

The Democracy have all along contended that Fillmore stood no chance of an election, and that the contest was really between Buchanan and Fremont. In this opinion they have been sustained by the most distinguished old-line Whigs of the country-such as Senators Pratt and Pearce of Maryland, Jones of Tennessee. Dixon of Kentucky, Benjamin of Louisiana, and by Rufus Choate of Massachusetts, and others in great number. Indeed, the fact was apparent upon the very face of political events; but the Know Nothings pretended to think otherwise. and affected, and stiff affect, a belief that Fillmore will be elected.

Well, we have had some practical de monstrations of late-some evidences stronger even than the opinions of keen-sighted men. And what is the result? Why the fact has been proven that, so far at least, the Know Nothings are nowhere either in the North or in the South. Is this so? voted, has gone Democratic. As to them. Fillmore has been utterly ignored. Well, how is it in the North? Why, the K N's are even worse off there. The Black Re publicans have carried Maine and Ver mont, the only two States from which we have received rrturns. Does not this prove that the contest is between Buchanan and Fremont? Does it not prove that the K. N.'s cannot even make a respectable show in the fight? What have the of pleasure, the Address delivered by Dr. God my lot has been cast in a State where K. N's done in all the elections recently Edward Warren, of Edenton before the it does not exist. But while I entertain held? Just nothing! In the South where there are no Black Republicans, they have earried nothing, while the Democrats have carried everything. In the North, they have carried nothing, and the only contest was between the Democracy and the Black either in the North or in the South, what any better in November?

> Let Southern men ponder over these irresistible farts, before they determine to Democracy should succeed? vote for Fillmore, and strengthen Fremont by refusing to vote for Bnehanan.

Although nominally called oldline Whigs, the whole body of the meeting which a liberal computation would not make exceed fifteen,) have, we believe, co-operated with the Know-Nothings, and uniformly opposed the Democracy.

THE GERMAN VOTE.

We hear many ejaculations of delight on the part of the K. N's over the assumed fact that the German population will desert the Democratic standard and go over in a body to Fremont. We imagine that this will turn out to be like most other K. N. facts -- to be untrue. The Baltimore " Deutsche Correspondent," a German paper, has an article in English defining its position and the position of the Germans in "" Our readers will bear in mind, that dent position, that his course is under the control of no clique of any kind; that we neither care for, nor depend upon political patronage, and that our adoption of Buchanan for the Presidency has been dictated by nothing else but our desire to proteet the German adopted population of Maryland against the accusation of siding with, and encouraging the destructive Isms bitually co-operate with that party-men of the day. Maine Election.

The Black Republicans have carried the State of Maine by an overwhelming majority-perhaps 20,000. The vote for Governor in 314 towns stands as follows :-Hamlin, Republican, 59,755; Wells. Democrat, 36,911; Patten, Whig, 5,200.

These figures tell a painful story for the South-and yet many Southern Know Nothings chuckle at the result! The Democracy bave been defeated in Maine-that's enough for them, even if Black Republicanism did triumph ! Know Nothingism is not known in Maine, and the Whig candidate only received 5,200 votes. Yes Southern Know Nothings find ample cause Republicans. If they have carried nothing for rejoicing over this Black Republican victory in the fact that the Democracy right have they to suppose they will do have been defeated! The Shooting affair at Goldsboro', N. C. We have already informed the readers of the News that Mr. Wur. T. Robinson. editor of the Goldsboro' Tribune, was shot and seriously wounded in that town on Saturday, 6th inst , by Wm. T. Dorteh. The Tribane of Thursday furnishes the following particulars:

About sunset, or a little before, as the editor of this paper was passing over to his er named Martin office from Mrs. Griswold's Hotel, Wm. T. Dortch, using a double barrel gun, shot him, taking deliberate aim, and lodging the contents of both barrels in his body and left arm. About ten minutes before the occurrence, Mr. Robinson had entered face the impress of truth. the hotel to transact some business, passing Mr. Dortch who was sitting on the steps with a gun standing erect between his legs, and, as report says, already cocked, but who, for reasons best known to himself, declined to perpetrate the bloody deed while his victim's face was towards him. Mr. Robinson, having transacted his business with Mr. Jones, proceeded towards his effice, and when less than half way across the street, or about fifteen or Taylor died. His sleeples twenty paces from Mr. Dortch, the latter fired on him with the effect already stated.

When Mr. Robinson received the first fire he staggered, instinctively piccing his left hand behind him on the spot wi ere he had been wounded, and with his right, drawing out his ptstol, but he instantly re- HAD CHERISHED FR ceived the second fire and fell On bein? UP, A FEELING, EVE raised, he attempted to cross over to Mr. | BICE, AGA!NST 8441 Dortch, who had now laid aside his gun and drawn a pistol, but found it impracticable-he couldn't stand up. At this need be, to try how it feels to vote without fifteen years old ran up, exclaiming "Pa, hand me your pistol and I'll sugot him," at the same instart snatching the pistol from his father's hand. The bravery displayed by this little boy in defence of a father, whom he then regarded as murdered, is worthy of all commendation. He was prevented from fighting or dying in his father's defence, only by those who wrested the pistol from him, and, as we thought, wrongfully.

Mr. Robinson was immediately earried to Dr. C. Dewey's office; where stimulants were administered, and his wounds partially examined. He was then removed to his residence, where he received all the attention that medical skill and kind offices coul! suggest from the hands of Doctors tersburg Express, informed Dewey, Moore and Craton, as well as from friends of Fremont, has written a letter to his brother-in-law, Dr. J. A VALUABLE FARM FOR SALE THE VALUABLE ESTATE KNOWN AS LEBANON, on Little Creek, in the county of Princess Anne, Virginia, in full view of Chesapeake Bay, and eight miles from Norfolk, is now offered for sale. This beautiful Farm contains, by recent survey, 547 Acres, nearly two hundred of which are well covered with Mr. George Wilson, at Great Bridge, or on the valuable Oak and Pine timber. The improve- premises to ments consist of a comfortable DWELLING HOUSE, in good repair, with seven rooms passage and cellar, a new Barn, and other buildings usual to such an estate. For beauty and desirablenes of location, this Farm cannot well be sur, assed. From the back door can be seen every steamer or vessel that passes through the Capes of Virginia. The land is of excellent quality, and peculiarly adapted to the growth of all the crops and fruits incident to this climate. and especially so to horticultural purposes. As a Market Farm, none offers greater inducements in raising early vegetables for the Northern markets, and should the contemplated Air-line through this farm, it will be brought in daily communication with New York. The range for stock is very good, and from the Bay, in view of the Dwelling, the finest fish and ovstess may be taken. The timbered land, which is very valuable, is only 21 miles distant from a good landing on the Eastern branch of Elizabeth river. Persons desirous of settling in this section of Virginia would do well to examine this farm without delay, as they can hardly fail to be pleased with it.

Also, can be purchased with Lebanon, 642 Acres of Sand Beach, embracing Hog Island, on Chesapeake Bay, with several valuable Fishe ries attached, it being immediately opposite to Lebanon, and only separate from it by Little

Also, a SMALL FARM adjoining Lebanon on the East, on Little Creek, containing 180 acres, which has Marl on it. The soil is good, and admirably adapted to the growth of vegetables, particularly sweet and Irish Potatore. HUNDREDS OF OUR OWN CITIZENS, the Rich, the Poor, everywhere, bear the same TESTIMONY.

Read the following certificate from a lady, en dorsed by Postmaster E. P. Cooper : Hampshire county, Va., March 1, 1854. Mr. E. P. Cooper.—Dear Sir: Agreeable to your request, and my own desire to benefit the afflicted, I hereby certify the great relief I re-ceived from the use of HAMPTON'S VEGETA BLE TINCTURE.

I was taken with a violent palpitation, or rather fluttering of the heart, which continued several days; it seemed to shough my heart had almost forgotten its office. The family became alarmed and procured a bottle of this valuable medicine, and before I had taken near one bottle of this valuable medicine, and before I had taken near one bottle of this TINCTURE OF HAMPTON'S I was entirely relieved.

This is the third instance of relief in my family by the use of this valuable medicine. Two r three years ago, I was laid up with ulceration of my ankle, from the effect of what is usu ally called a milk leg. I had lost all taste and appetite; and the sore which was some four inches up and down, and half-way around my ankle, rejected every effort to heal it. until procured HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINC TURE, one bottle of which restored my health healed my ankle, and I am freer from swelling than the last thirty years.

Again, one of my daughters was very low from severe disentery, and when she began to sit up her feet commenced swelling which it creased every day, to be very painful—she used a bottle of Hampton's Tincture; the pains were assunged, the swellings subsided and her health returned-we kept her legs bandaged with strips of woollen until her strength returned. I have been thus particular, that others, under similar circumstances, might be induced to avail themselves of this remedy. Yours with respect.

I do hereby certify that I am personally quainted with Mrs. Edwards, and can safely commend the above statement to be co. -ect E. P. COOPER, Postmaster, REV. VERNON ESKRIDGE, U. S. N.) Portsmouth, Va., Aug., 18, 1851. Mr. J. E. Boush .-Sir, While I am in general apposed to Patent Medicines, candor compels me to state, that I have great confidence in the virtues of HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINC TURE. For several months past I have used i in my family, and in dispepsia, loss of appetite, dizziness and general debility, with entire success. So far as my experience extends there fore, I take pleasure in recommending it to the afflicted, as a safe and efficient remedy.

I am respectfully yours. VERNON ESKRIDGE, Chaplain U. S. N. Portsmouth, Va., Aug. 18, 1852.

A VALUABLE ESTATE FOR SALE. HE undersigned offers for sale his Tract of Land lying near Hickory Ground, Norfolk county, Va., contains about twelve handred acres, about Three Hundred of which are in a high state of cultivation, and the remainder is in original growth; embracing an immense quantity of excellent timber of every variety. It lies in a compact body, but still is susceptible of a very easy and convenient division into several tracts. It is situated in a fine neighborhood, only one mile from St. Bride's Academy, eighteen from the city of Norfolk, and within a short distance of two water courses leading to that city, and is considered a very healthy location. It has upon it a good and convenient Dwelling, with the necessary out houses, and also, a never Independent of its other attractions, the quantity and the quality of the timber upon it constitute a very important consideration, as this, if udiciously, disposed of, can be made to pay a large sum of the purchase money. Taken altogether, it is justly considered a very valuable tract of land, and the opportunity of making such an investment is one rarely met with
